

Denis Shadow

Hunting department manager. Works mainly with Foreign and Russian clients for Russian and Asian hunts, but is knowledgeable a lot about African and European destinations.

Denis was born in 1984 in St Petersburg. From this magnificent historical city he gained the best qualities for his present occupation – intellectuality, politeness, tactfulness and ability to deal with all sorts of people. In 2006 he graduated from Moscow University of Linguistics with a qualification of linguist and interpreter. He speaks English and German. In 2010 he graduated from Moscow Financial and Economic Institute, Faculty Finances and Credit. Nowadays we have not only highly qualified booking specialist, but also variously - educated and versatile person.

Denis joined Profi Hunt in June 2008 and have already proved to be responsible and eager to work out every single detail of each journey he arranges. His clients are sure to occur in good and friendly hands!

