

Alexander Egorov (Russia) has really been after the international Capra animals lately and has achieved the Capra World Slam Super 30 as a result. You were able to see Alexander's Capra World Slam Super 20 Milestone Feature in the Fall issue of SLAM QUEST, and there we promised to use more photos in future issues. For this Milestone Feature we will use Alexander's latest trophies, and you will see more from him elsewhere this time and even more will be shared in future issues.

1. Mid-Asian ibex (2003) 2. New Zealand chamois (2005) 3. New Zealand tahr (2005) 4. Altay ibex (2010) 5. Beceite ibex (2012) 6. Alpine chamois (2012) 7. American mountain goat (2012) 8. Cantabrian chamois (2012) 9. Southeastern ibex (2012) 10. Ronda ibex (2012) 11. Carpathian chamois (2012) 12. Balkan chamois (2012) 13. Kri-Kri ibex (2012) 14. Mid-Caucasian tur (2012) 15. Pyrenean chamois (2013) 16. Caucasian chamois (2013) 17. Gredos ibex (2013) 18. Sindh ibex (2014) 19. Himalayan ibex (2014) 20. Dagestan (Eastern) tur (2014) 21. Feral goat (2011) 22. Kuban (Western) tur (2014) 23. Astor markhor (2015) 24. Sulaiman markhor (2015) 25. Mallorcan wild goat (2015) 26. Alpine ibex (2015) 27. Gobi ibex (2015) 28. Chartreuse chamois (2015) 29. Anatolian chamois (2015) 30. Bezoar ibex (2015)

1. Mid-Asian ibex (2003) 2. New Zealand chamois (2005) 3. New

Alexander Egorov (Russia) achieved the Capra World Slam Super 30 on November 7, 2015 with this outstanding bezoar ibex from Turkey.

Alexander Egorov (Russia) with his wide Gobi ibex taken in Mongolia in September 2015.

This Astor markhor was taken by Alexander Egorov (Russia) near Gilgit, Pakistan during March 2015.

This fantastic Anatolian chamois was taken in Turkey in November 2015 by Alexander Egorov (Russia).

Alexander Egorov (Russia) hunted in France to take this Chartreuse chamois in October 2015.

Alexander Egorov (Russia) took this Sulaiman markhor in the Torghar Hills of Pakistan in March 2015.