

Alexander Egorov (Russia) is seen elsewhere this time documenting several of his mountain trophies, but we have many more to share. Alexander is up to 25 species of sheep, so we want to share some of his most recent trophies

This Fannin sheep was taken in the Yukon in August 2015 by Alexander Egorov (Russia).

Alexander Egorov (Russia) hunted in Mongolia during July 2015 to take this Gobi argali with ProfiHunt.

Alexander Egorov (Russia) hunted in Russia during September 2015 to take this Chukotka snow sheep, the first of two rams taken.

This is the second Chukotka snow sheep taken by Alexander Egorov (Russia) in Russia during September 2015.

taken during 2015. These trophies include a Gobi argali from Mongolia, a Fannin ram taken from the Yukon and two Chukotka snow sheep taken from Russia. He should get them scored and entered for our 2017 Trophy Awards.