

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) completed his Ovis World Slam in August 2013 after taking an Okhotsk snow sheep from his home country of Russia. Eduard became a life member of GSCO in March 2012 and at that time he documented his Capra World Slam. Now we have Eduard's Ovis World Slam documentation, so all we need is Eduard's Grand Slam documentation for him to enter the ranks of Triple Slammers. Eduard did not submit any hunt reports, but he did send some fine photos to share.

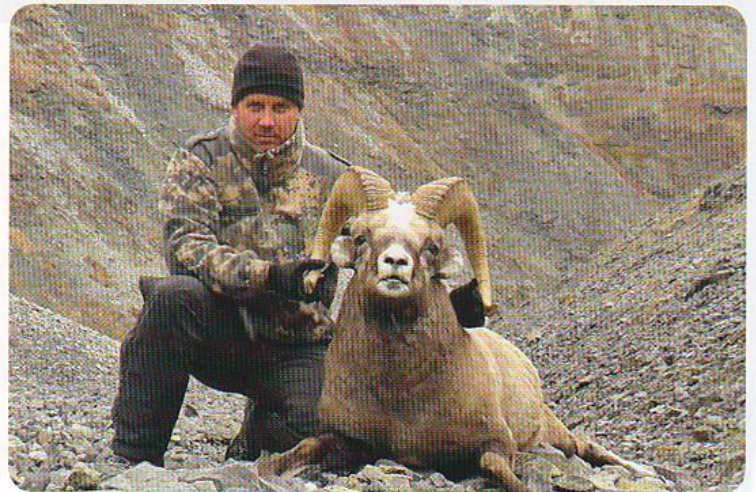

1. Tian Shan argali (2006)
2. European mouflon (2006)
3. Dagestan (Eastern) tur (2010)
4. Kuban (Western) tur (2010)
5. Aoudad (2011)
6. Kolyma snow sheep (2011)
7. Koryak snow sheep (2011)
8. Kamchatka snow sheep (2011)
9. Yakutia snow sheep (2012)
10. Altay argali (2012)
11. Marco Polo argali (2012)
12. Okhotsk snow sheep (2013)

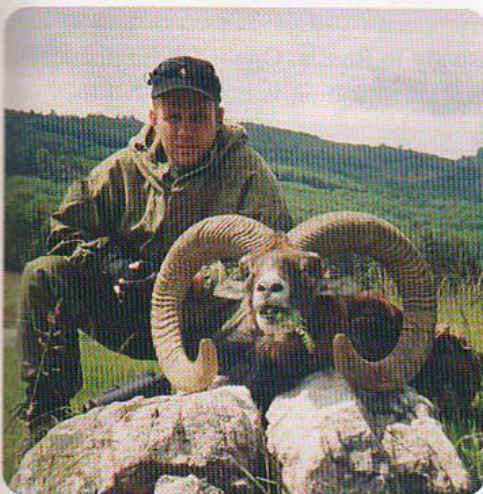

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) completed his Ovis World Slam with this Okhotsk snow sheep from Siberia, Russia in August 2013. Eduard was hunting through ProfiHunt.

This aoudad from South Africa was taken by Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) in 2011.

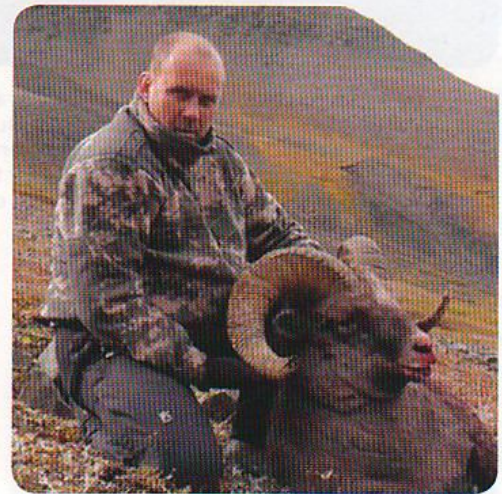

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) took this Kolyma snow sheep from Russia in 2011. Eduard was hunting with ProfiHunt.

In 2006, Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) hunted in Bulgaria and was able to take a European mouflon.

This beautiful Tian Shan argali was taken in Kyrgyzstan by Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) in 2006. Eduard booked this hunt through ProfiHunt.

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) took this Kamchatka snow sheep from Siberia, Russia during 2012. Eduard was hunting with ProfiHunt.