

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) is a new life member of GSCO who recently documented all of his Capra and Ovis trophies at one time; 17 different animals, as a matter of fact. The 13 from his Capra file naturally earned him the Capra World Slam. According to our records, one of Eduard's first animals from the Capra list is a New Zealand tahr taken in 2008. Eduard has all four of Spain's Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) hunted in New Zealand back in 2008 to get this great tahr. He booked this trip with Profihunt.

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) with his Ronda ibex from Spain taken in 2012.

Eduard Benderskiy (Russia) hunted with Profihunt and Espacaza in 2012 for Beceite ibex and scored with this fine trophy on that hunt.

ibex, but he took a Southeastern, Ronda and a huge Beceite all in 2012 to get him to the Capra World Slam. You will be seeing more from this accomplished mountain hunter in future issues.