

My friend Giancarlo Boienti (Italy) sent a photo and report about his October 2002 Dagestan tur hunt. Here is how he reported it:

I took an Eastern tur on October 10, 2002, booked through Profi-Hunt.

I had one of the two hardest hunting days of my life. Even if the trophy is small, I am happy because of the positive experience. I highly recommend this for those who love a real mountain hunt.

I am sorry that the photo does not show the full body; I shot him in the late evening, and the ram tumbled down a steep ridge for 300 to 400 meters. When we reached him, it was dark and the flash on my camera did not work. The trip back to the tents in the dark was hard and dangerous.

Giancarlo Boienti (Italy) took this Eastern tur in October 2002, hunting with Profi-Hunt.*