

Jerry Moschgat (PA) completed his Ovis World Slam in September 2006 by taking all three turs from the Caucasus Mts. As a matter of fact, Jerry was on the cover of the Spring 2007 OVIS with his Kuban (Western) tur. That was the first tur to ever grace the cover of OVIS, and it was a great photograph. Well, Jerry has some more rams that I haven't had the opportunity to use and I will share those with you here. Jerry hunted in Spain during July 2003 with Jose Mallo and got a European mouflon, and then in September 2005 he traveled to Russia to get a Kamchatka and Koryak snow sheep. Look for more from Jerry later in this issue with some of his Capra

This Kamchatka snow sheep was taken by Jerry Moschgat (PA) in Russia during September 2005. Jerry was hunting with Vladimir Melnikov of Profi-Hunt.

animals.

We are so pleased to see the Triple Slam list continue to grow. It is certainly a lifetime achievement to accomplish the Triple Slam. Little did we know in 1990, when Dennis went to Phoenix, Arizona to collect the Grand Slam Club archives, that this organization would progress to this stage. It has been a great ride, and we have only just begun. Together we can all make GSCO a world force in conservation.

Jerry Moschgat (PA) got this Koryak snow sheep in Russia, September 2005.