

Joe Francois (WI) has added yet another fine ram toward his Ovis World Slam. The photo of his very old Yakutia snow sheep reveals a lot of annual growth rings. I am not sure how old that old broomed warrior is, Joe, but I can see enough to guess at least 14 years old. You must be proud of such a trophy. Under “hunt highlights,” Joe wrote:

This hunt did not start well. I waited for my luggage in Moscow. Finally left on the third day without my hunting clothes. Bought some clothes in Moscow, but not enough warm ones. Mark Jackson (IN) was in my camp and was generous enough to lend me long underwear, vest, insulated shirt, wool hat, gloves and rain pants. I was extremely pleased with Profi-Hunt and all they did.

Joe Francois (WI) took this old broomed Yakutia snow sheep in August 2005 with Vladimir Melnikov's Profi-Hunt Ltd.
