

Mark Jackson (IN) recently brought us up to date on his latest mountain hunting adventures by emailing photos and a report. Mark writes:

I haven't caught up for a while. Barb went with me to Austria the fall of 2010. The hunt was organized by

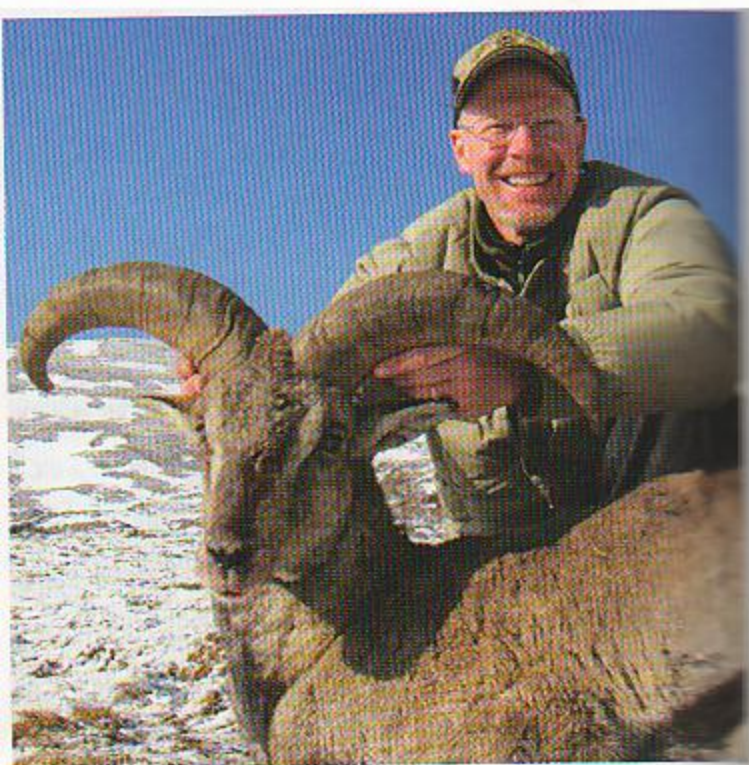

This Alpine chamois was taken in Austria by Mark Jackson (IN) in 2010. Mark hunted with ProfiHunt.

ProfiHunt. I was able to collect two Capra animals and a wild boar. Barb really loved the country and trip. We celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary in Vienna at the Sacher Hotel. I would highly recommend this trip to any hunter traveling with his wife.

Last spring I was finally able to hunt in Nepal. Nepal has been a dream of mine for 15 years. The hunt was organized by ProfiHunt and I hunted with Tracks-n-Trails Safaris. Deepak Rana was amazing. He is one of the most experienced and organized outfitters I have ever hunted with. This was the most interesting trip I have ever taken. I was able to collect a Himalayan blue sheep and tahr. The tahr is the only mountain animal I've had jump off a cliff. You'll notice in the photo I got lucky, as the guides found the horn that had popped off. Barb and I slept for about a month in the Hypoxico chamber before I left. What an experience! I was able to complete the hunt without Diamox®.

Mark Jackson (IN) took this Alpine ibex from Austria in the fall of 2010. Mark was hunting with ProfiHunt.

Mark Jackson (IN) and his Himalayan blue sheep from Nepal, March 2011. Mark was hunting with Deepak Rana of Tracks-n-Trails Safaris.

This Himalayan tahr from Nepal was taken in March 2011 by Mark Jackson (IN). Mark booked this hunt through ProfiHunt and hunted with Deepak Rana of Tracks-n-Trails Safaris.